The Independent NEWSLETTER

FROM THE PRESIDENT

I hope everyone had a fantastic holiday season with family and friends! As I think of everything I am thankful for in 2018, and hopeful for in 2019, working together and collaborating with the members of this great association are always on my list.

Many people are concerned about opening up and working with others. There are some confidentiality concerns and also challenges of how a relationship can be started. To assist in getting our members to work together with others and other peers and clients, I am providing a couple of sample documents.

Non-Disclosure Agreement

What is it and how does it help you?

1099 Subcontractor Agreement

What is it and how does it help you? Should you have one when you work with another NAIIA member?

I hope you can find some use from the sample documents and some ideas on how to work together going forward.

Happy New Year from the NAIIA. We wish you a happy and prosperous 2019. Cheers!

*Dave Hausch, 2018-2019 NAIIA President
President and CEO of Hausch & Company*

NAC Invitation

A special NAIIA team of Cathy Hester (CJ Hester, Inc) and John Henderson (Wickizer & Clutter) have worked together to standardize the invitation process to prospective members of the National Advisory Council. The National Advisory Council (NAC) was created by the NAIIA for free and open discussion of claim topics and to enhance relationships between independent adjusters and the clients they serve.

Click below to learn more about the invitation and to view the documents provided by Cathy and John for your clients. If I can assist in any way in reaching out to your clients and proposing the National Advisory Council, please do not hesitate to contact me at dhausch@hauschco.com.
